

5-6-1971

Faculty Bulletin: May 6, 1971

La Salle University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.lasalle.edu/faculty_bulletins

Recommended Citation

La Salle University, "Faculty Bulletin: May 6, 1971" (1971). Faculty Bulletins. 58.
http://digitalcommons.lasalle.edu/faculty_bulletins/58

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at La Salle University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Faculty Bulletins by an authorized administrator of La Salle University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact careyc@lasalle.edu.

LA SALLE COLLEGE

May 6, 1971
Vol. 9, No. 8

Faculty Bulletin

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

BACCALAUREATE, COMMENCEMENT SLATED FOR MAY 17

The annual Baccalaureate Mass will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Monday, May 17, at St. Timothy's Church, Levick and Battersby Streets, and the college's 108th commencement will be held at 7:00 P.M. on the same date at Philadelphia's Civic Center-Convention Hall.

Vesting for the Baccalaureate Mass will take place at 10:15 A.M. in St. Timothy's Lower Church, with the procession set for 10:40 A.M., promptly.

The evening vesting for the Commencement will take place at 6:15 P.M. in Convention Hall's Room 200 for Faculty, and Room 205 for Administration, with the procession scheduled to begin promptly at 6:40 P.M.

Honorary doctor of law degrees will be conferred on U.S. Representative Shirley A. Chisholm (D-Brooklyn), and Harold G. Reuschlein, LL.B., dean of the Villanova University Law School.

Dr. Thomas M. Coffee, dean of La Salle's evening division, will sponsor Representative Chisholm for her degree. Edward J. Domineski, J.D., associate professor of business law at the college, will sponsor Dean Reuschlein.

The Christian R. and Mary F. Lindback awards will also be presented to members of the college's faculty for distinguished teaching.

DEAN'S OFFICE, EVENING DIVISION

LA SALLE EVENING DIVISION TO INITIATE COOPERATIVE ELEMENTARY-EDUCATION PROGRAM

The evening divisions of La Salle College and Chestnut Hill College will establish a cooperative program in elementary education beginning this summer, it was announced by Sister Helen Veronica, S.S.J., dean of Chestnut Hill College, and Dr. Thomas Coffee, dean of La Salle's evening division.

DEAN'S OFFICE, EVENING DIVISION (Cont'd.)

Each college will offer the bachelor's of arts degree in elementary education to its own matriculated students. The program will become the 18th major field leading to a bachelor's degree in La Salle's evening division, which will begin its 25th year this September.

Pennsylvania state teacher certification for course work in elementary school teacher training and curricula instruction will be granted by Chestnut Hill College.

La Salle and Chestnut Hill have successfully participated in dual enrollment and cooperative programs for the past four years in the day division.

ALUMNI

CLASS REUNIONS TO BE HELD MAY 15 AND MAY 22

On Saturday, May 15, the classes of '41, '46, '51, and '56 will hold their anniversary celebrations on campus in the college union ballroom.

The following Saturday, May 22, members of the classes of '61 and '66 will celebrate their reunion in the union ballroom.

Faculty members and administrators, who are graduates of the above-mentioned classes, may procure tickets at $25.00 per couple by contacting the alumni office (Ext. 421-422). Price includes an open bar (before and after), dinner and dancing until 1:00 A.M.

COUNSELING CENTER

PRE-COLLEGE COUNSELING PROGRAM

On Tuesday, April 13, the initial mailing of material for the Pre-College Counseling Program was made to freshmen entering La Salle in September, 1971

COUNSELING CENTER (Cont'd.)

The Program, which begins May 20 and continues through the summer, will include a discussion by students and their parents with a panel of college personnel, students faculty and administrators. In addition, the Public Affairs office is preparing a presentation which will be offered to parents.

Once again, the Counseling Center invites faculty members to sit in on sessions, and also to join the group for coffee in the union ballroom at approximately 10:15 A.M. on those days on which the program runs. Specific dates, times, and places can be obtained by contacting the Counseling Center (ext. 231).

* * *

READING PROGRAM TO BE OFFERED THIS SUMMER

The Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Course will be offered on campus this summer in eight week sessions. Two classes are tentatively being scheduled, one a Saturday morning class beginning June 19, and the other a Wednesday evening class beginning June 16.

Faculty who might be interested in taking this course may contact Dr. Peter J. Filicetti at the Counseling Center.

* * *

UNDERGRADUATE MALE ATTITUDE SURVEY AVAILABLE

A preliminary report on the results of a study of Undergraduate Men's Attitudes Toward Women is available in the Counseling Center. The report compares responses of men by major, college year, residence, type of high school, dating frequency and involvement in extracurricular activities. Three scales were used to indicate the presence of attitudes which support the subordination of women, stereotypic conceptions of women as intellectually naive, and rigid conventionalism.

MILITARY SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

FORTY-THREE GRADUATES TO BE COMMISSIONED, MAY 16

Commissioning ceremonies for Army ROTC and Marine Corps' Platoon Leader graduates will be held at 11:00 A.M. on Sunday, May 16, in the College Union Theatre, on campus.

Forty cadets will be commissioned in the United States Army. Twelve cadets are "Distinguished Military Graduates" of which seven will receive a regular army commission. In addition, three La Salle students will be commissioned in the United States Marine Corps.

Highlighting the occasion will be remarks from Brigadier General Robert Haldane, who will be the U.S. Army ROTC Summer Camp Commander at Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, Annville, Pa.

All faculty are cordially invited to attend the ceremony and the reception which follows.

GENERAL

AAUP LA SALLE CHAPTER ELECTS OFFICERS

The La Salle College Chapter of the American Association of University Professors recently elected Joseph J. Bernier, assistant professor, psychology, as its president. In addition, Richard T. Geruson, assistant professor, economics, was elected to the vice-presidency, and Christa K. Dixon, assistant professor, German, was chosen as secretary-treasurer.

PUBLISHED, SPOKE, MET, ETC.

- ASHCRAFT, Dr. Carolyn, assistant professor, psychology, attended meetings of the Eastern Psychological Association in New York City, April 15-18.
- BERNIER, Joseph J., assistant professor, psychology, attended the recent convention of the American Personnel and Guidance Association held in Atlantic City, April 5-7, 1971.
- BIECHLER, James E., instructor, theology, published review of Nicolai de Cusa Opera Omnia, XVI, 1: Sermones I (1430-1441), Fasc. I, in the Journal of Ecumenical Studies, VIII, Winter, 158-160.
- BOZEL, Brother William, F.S.C., director of housing; GRESH, Brother Charles E., F.S.C., dean of students; HAGEMAN, Miss B. Ann, assistant director residence life; and four students attended the recent American Personnel and Guidance Association Conference in Atlantic City, N.J.
- COURTNEY, Dr. Robert J., professor, political science, and HALPIN, Charles A.J. Jr. professor, industry, have received approval from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for their proposed Labor-Management Relations Seminar and Workshop. The program will be given on the La Salle College campus July 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and August 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 1971.
- DI MARCO, Dr. Domenico A., associate professor, Italian and Classics, took part, as an officer, in the 9th Annual Conference of Italian Language and Literature, sponsored by the American Institute for Italian Culture, and the American Association of Teachers of Italian. Also, he participated in the North-East Conference of the Modern Language Association. Dr. DiMarco delivered a speech on the cultural relations between Italy and U.S.A., at the 33rd Annual Banquet of the Sons of Columbus of America. Dr. DiMarco has been elected to the Board of Directors of the "Italian-American TV, Press and Radio Association."
- BROOKS, Dr. Victor D., evening division, psychology, has been invited to conduct a number of seminars at various locations throughout the country during the month of May for supervisors and managers of the Federal Health, Education and Welfare Department. The Seminars will deal with special personnel problems that may arise with the culturally deprived high school boys and girls to be hired for the summer by H.E.W.
- ELLIS, Brother Patrick, F.S.C., associate professor, English, has had article, "Wordsworth's Ode, 'Intimations of Immortality' and the Italian Sonnet" accepted for autumn publication by the CEA Critic. Also, Brother Ellis, will speak at the National Honor Society Induction Ceremony at Trinity High School, Harrisburg, on May 5.
- FILICETTI, Dr. Peter J., associate professor, psychology, spoke on April 28, 1971 to a parents group of the Presbyterian Church of Abington on the topic "Drugs and Youth." Dr. Filicetti was the main speaker at the Middle Atlantic States Region Spring Conference of Evening Student Congress Representatives hosted at La Salle College on May 1, 1971. His topic was "Drugs--A Campus Crisis?"
- FOLEY, Fred J., Jr., instructor, political science, attended conference on "Central Local Relations in Africa: the Problem of Linkage" at Temple University on April 16, 1971.

PUBLISHED, SPOKE, MET, ETC. (Cont'd.)

- GOLDNER, Dr. Bernard B., professor, industry, Under the sponsorship of the Management department, the third panel-seminar with YPO (Young Presidents Organization) was held on April 21st in the Presidential Suite. On the YPO panel were: Jerry Odell, president, Waber-Odell Co., insurance agents and brokers; Joseph A. Teti, Jr., president, La France Precision Casting Co.; and Harvey A. Salieman, president, Queen Knitting Mills, Inc. The panelists and most of the forty students present, told Dr. Goldner later that it was a most worthwhile and rewarding experience.
- HOFMANN, Roseanne, lecturer, mathematics; ALBRIGHT, Brother Hugh, F.S.C., professor, mathematics, and WEI TSENG, mathematics, attended the meeting of the American Mathematical Society in New York City from April 8 to 10.
- JANIK, Allan, assistant professor, philosophy, attended the opening of an exhibit of the works of Karl Kraus from the collection of Oscar Samek co-sponsored by Brandeis University Library and the Austro American Association on April 17th.
- MONTGOMERY, Phyllis A., dean of student life programs, attended the American Deans' and Women's Counselors Conference in St. Louis, Mo.
- PFEIFFER, Dr. Mark, associate professor, psychology, delivered an original paper on April 17 entitled, "A Technique for Measuring the Expected Amount of Mental Work Delivered by College Professors in the Classroom" at the 42nd annual meeting of the Eastern Psychological Association, New York.
- SCHRADER, Dr. Charles H., assistant professor, psychology will be serving as an abstractor for the Journal of College Student Personnel.
- SCHREINER, Dr. Frank J., associate professor, psychology, spoke at the Archdiocese Study Weekends in Religious Education for Elementary Teachers on March 6 and 13. His topic was "The Psychology of the Caring Teacher."
- VAN EVERBROECK, Reverend Leo M., C.I.C.M., assistant professor, theology, started teaching a twelve week training course for C.C.D. teachers and parents. The series is given at the provincialate of the Sisters of Holy Redeemer in Huntingdon Valley, Pa. The subject of this series of lectures is "The Pentateuch." Father also gave the address to the regional meeting of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart. The topic: "The Psalms as Prayer of the Church."